June 2015

Greetings, South Central!

This year has been going remarkably well for the Six-State Rally team. We've met twice in Conroe, Texas: January for the SRA Executive Board, and April for a Planning Rally and Ambassadors' Meet. All of this was to prepare for our "Really Big Show" in October.

The caliber of entertainment will be outstanding - with room to dance! Meals will be magnificent (rally calories don't count, do they?). Seminars will be informative and fun, while vendors and coach dealers are already lining up lots of neat stuff. Throw in a Patriotic Day, Texas Theme Day, chili cook-off, new friends to meet and many activities to please everybody. Be ready to have FUN!

Rally starts on October 7th, but for those who want to pre-rally or get acquainted with the area, early arrival begins on October 4th. Conroe is a great destination area, with much to see and do. We'll have honey-wagon service available, but we suggest you arrive with empty holding tanks and full of fresh water. Register for your choice of power. We'll have plenty of 50-amp and 30-amp service available.

I hope everybody has taken a look at our revised website: www.sca-fmca.com The site is now mobile friendly, or "responsive" to different devices. This year we plan to publish seminar schedules as rally time approaches, and arrival instructions are already available. Check often.

At the time of this writing, our international Family Reunion in Madison is approaching and registration is running ahead of many earlier rallies. That's Great! You'll be well pleased with everything planned at Madison. Then you'll have just enough time to get home and rest up before joining all your friends at Conroe.

All the smiles and laughter you've enjoyed in the past will be remembered and renewed, and when we leave Conroe for home (or...?), you'll be the proud keeper of great memories.

Let me close by saying – and giving – thanks to all of Team SRA and all of Family FMCA. New days are brighter and new miles are smoother because of you.

See you down the road!
